Cold Weather Checks Tobacco
Business in All Branches.

Loose Leafers Discontinue Operations For Few Days and Everything at a Stand-Still.

The very cold weather for the past week has had the effect of checking the handling of tobacco and receipts of the loose weed have therefore been very small. In fact the tobacco business in all branches has been almost at a standstill for several days.

Considerable loose tobacco has already been received, however, and a good pile of Christmas cash has been turned loose among the farmers.

It is not known what per cent of the crop of 1901 has been sold, but it is safe to say that fully one half has already been disposed of.

There were no public sales on the breaks this week, though a few boughs changed hands privately.

Prices are considered very good for the sorts sold.

Buyers were forced to come in from the country when the weather became cold and no more of the weed will be bought by them until the tobacco again comes in order for handling.

WATKINS-EDWARDS.

Gracey Business Man and Cadiz
Lady Marry.

Mr. Gipp Watkins, of Gracey, and Miss Elsie Edwards, of Cadiz, were married Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride and was a very quiet affair, only a few of the most intimate friends and relatives of the couple being present.

Mr. and Mrs. Watkins at once came to Gracey, where they took the train for Clarksville and Wednesday night they left for Memphis to visit a sister of the bride.

They will be absent a week and on their return will go to house keeping in the Strayer residence. The ceremony was performed by Rev. McAfee, of the Methodist church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. Ed Edwards. She is not only lovely in person but is sweet in nature and magnetic in manner. She is the center of a host of friends whose regrets are keen that her future residence will not be among them. Mr. Watkins is a prominent young business man of Gracey. He is popular in society and in business, possessing all the genial qualities requisite for success.

UNION MINER

Given Two Years For Firing From Ambush.

Madisonville, Ky., Dec. 18.—The jury in the Jean Couch case at Dixon, Webster county, returned at verdict this morning of guilty and fixed his punishment at two years in the penitentiary. Couch is a union negro. He was indicted by the Webster county grand jury for shooting from ambush into a wagon load of non-union negroes en route to Providence. One of the non-union negroes was wounded in the leg. There were several in the attacking party, but Couch was the only one captured. He has been in the Dixon jail since awaiting trial.

The verdict was a surprise. Couch was charged with shooting with intent to kill, and he was caught in the act. The court at Dixon is disposing of the law-breakers in short order. The grand jury is still in session and doing a land-office business.

Gen. W. F. Perry, a Confederate veteran of note, and a prominent citizen of Bowling Green, is dead.

PAPERS FOUND

On Dead Man Believed to Have Furnished Evidence

Upon Which Three Officers of United Mine Workers Were Indicted.

Madisonville, Ky., Dec. 19.—The Webster county grand jury has returned indictments against James D. Wood, Christopher C. Barnaby and W. B. Kissinger, officers of the United Mine Workers, charging them with being accessories before the fact to wilful murder. The indictments are based on the fight at Providence mines and are believed to have been procured by reason of papers found on the body of Givens, the union miner killed. One of the papers contained the names of thirty or more men who were known to be union miners. Opposite the name of each man was the number and description of weapon in their possession. Other papers were found on his person, but the authorities refused to make known what these papers contained. All these documents were submitted to the grand jury, and it is now believed that the indictments against the three leaders were secured on evidence found on Givens' body.

It is said that neither Barnaby, Wood nor Kissinger will be allowed to give bail, but after their arrest will be confined in jail until the next term of Circuit Court, which is some months off.

TWO PATIENTS DEAD.

One Body Shipped to Russellville,
Other to Wingo.

There were two deaths at the Western Asylum yesterday. The first was Mrs. Yates of Wingo, who was received at the institution for treatment about three weeks ago. Death was due to acute melancholia. She was about 40 years old. The remains were shipped over the I.C. yesterday at 11:30 a.m.

Mike Daily died after a brief illness. His home was in Russellville, where his remains were sent yesterday afternoon. He was a member of the order of Locomotive Engineers.

ICE HARVEST ON

And Many Houses Filled With Four Inch Ice.

The zero weather for the past week has caused the ice to form several inches thick on the ponds, providing good keeping ice for those who have houses in which to store it, and many farmers succeed in filling their houses with blocks varying in thickness from two and a half to four inches.

It is said that more ice has been "harvested" up to the present time than was ever "gathered" in this section in any one December for twenty years.

Good sport has also been afforded skaters and a large number from this city enjoyed the "ice glide." Sledding has been excellent.

LOSES HIS JOB.

Oldest Employee of the Asylum Discharged.

E. O. Sullivan, the oldest employee of the Western Asylum, who had been a faithful watchman for 32 years, has been discharged. He has been filling the position of night watch for many years. Mr. Sullivan was referred to by Dr. McCormick as one of the witnesses in the reign of scandal last winter, but gave no evidence of importance when called upon. It is said that he has now recovered his loss of memory and will be an important witness at the Legion's trial.

VEDDER-GOFF.

Illinois Business Man Marries
Lady in This City.

Mr. Guy N. Vedder, of Whitehall, Ills., and Miss Florence M. Goff, of this city, were married at the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church Wednesday night at 9 o'clock.

The bride is the sister of Rev. F. L. Goff, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and is a lady of high accomplishments and possessed of many excellent traits of character. The groom is a most excellent gentleman and a successful businessman of Whitehall, being at this time extensively engaged in the milling business. This comes as a complete surprise to most of the friends and acquaintances of the contracting parties, but the engagement is of a year or more duration. Dr. Pentecost and the bride's brother officiated, only a few of the intimate friends being present. The happy pair left on the 9:40 train for their home in Whitehall, carrying with them the best wishes of scores of friends.

GREAT DAMAGE DONE.

Barns and Other Outbuildings
Blown Down—Tobacco Ruined.

During the heavy wind and rain storm last Friday night two tobacco barns belonging to Mr. Sam D. Cheshut, of Trenton, were blown down. Both barns were filled with fine tobacco and the contents of one of the buildings was almost ruined.

A barn belonging to Mr. Strother Banks, of the same neighborhood was also blown down, but the tobacco was not very badly damaged. Mr. Cheshut's loss is very heavy.

Nearly all of the outbuildings belonging to Mr. Alex McElwain were either blown down or damaged to a considerable extent.

Mr. H. G. Boone's business house in Trenton was unroofed and a number of chimneys were wrecked.

NEARING NINETY

Was Mrs. Mary Cannon When the End Came.

Mrs. Mary Cannon, one of the oldest women of the county, died Tuesday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Woods, near Antioch. She was in her 90th year and for several years had been confined to her room.

She had been a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for about 60 years.

Decesed leaves several children and a large number of grandchildren. The interment took place Wednesday in the Antioch Church cemetery.

Mr. Thomas Rogers, of Donora, Pa., is here on a visit to his brother, Mr. J. F. Rogers.

THROUGH CHRISTMAS WEEK

The fleeting Will Probably Continue—Interest Increasing Daily.

The meetings which have been in progress for the past two weeks will probably continue through Christmas week if Dr. Pentecost's voice does not fail him. Yesterday morning at the meeting, which was a most interesting one and largely attended, Dr. Pentecost stated that he would be glad to preach to the people if his voice remained so he could without further injury. There seems to be no desire among our people to have the meeting stop now, as there is greatly increasing interest, and the sermons, if possible, get better and better. Mr. Foggs of Lexington, who has been conducting the song services from the start, left for his home Wednesday. At the request of the audience at yesterday morning's service, Rev. F. J. Mitchell, at the unanimous request of those present, consented to lead the singing at all further meetings. Rev. Mitchell has had much experience as a conductor of songs, and there is no doubt that he will do his best, as he does in everything he undertakes.

LATER—It has been thought best during the bitter cold weather to hold no meetings in the Tabernacle until Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at which time Dr. Pentecost will preach, and again that night at 7 o'clock he will preach to men, his subject being "A Mystery and Not a Myth." The body of the Tabernacle will be reserved for men and a large crowd will no doubt be present to hear this sermon.

PRESENCE OF MIND.

Long Clerk Saved the Store from an Unpleasant Experience.

Speaking of presence of mind, said a New Orleans drug clerk, "I call a curious little experience of my own, shortly after I went into the business. I had a job in a very popular pharmacy that was so crowded for work on the downstairs floor that the prescription department was located in the second story. A sort of dumb waiter supplied the necessary connection, and the arrangement worked very well, except that the boys upstairs, being out of sight, had an opportunity to do a good deal of sky-larking. The proprietor of the place was an excellent man, but a strict disciplinarian, and the whole crowd stood very much in awe of him. He did not stay in the store all the time, but dropped in at irregular intervals, and, needless to say, we were continually on the alert for his coming. Of course, the clerks upstairs were at a great disadvantage, and to protect them from being caught loafing unaware some genius in the shop devised the plan of putting a small cross at the bottom of any prescription that was sent up when the 'old man' was on the premises. The cross meant 'look out' and when the boss mounted the stairs he would find the boys working like beavers. One day, when this had been going on for a long time, the old man came rushing in, in a great hurry, just as a customer handed me a prescription. I promptly inscribed the calamitous cross on the margin, but he was behind the counter before I knew it and caught me in the act. 'What does the dash mean?' he demanded. To this day I don't know what inspired me, for I was scared stiff, but without a moment's hesitation I replied: 'It means that the customer is waiting for it in the store and is a sign to hurry up.' The boss rummaged over the idea for a moment and then declared it was excellent. 'I'm surprised I didn't think of that myself,' he said; 'don't fail to keep it up.' That is how the meaning of the danger signal was changed," added the drug clerk, "and as far as I know it is still used in that particular establishment. Just what top now stands for it's coming. I am unable to say"—N. O. Times-Democrat.

A WOMAN'S JUDGMENT.

Helpful to a Man Because of the Different Viewpoint.

It has been said that however much an ordinary man and woman may have in life, howver close they grow in affection and in purpose, one remains masculine and the other feminine to the last. Try as they will to see things out of the same eyes, they assist in looking up to them. The combination of the masculine and the feminine points of view give a result similar to that produced by the microscope. You look at the picture through a magnifying glass, and you get only two dimensions, length and breadth; but through the microscope you get length and breadth and depth, because through the two glasses of the instrument you are looking at a picture taken from points of view separated by the distance between your eyes. You often notices the third dimension in the judgment of a human being, although physicians will tell you that a sensible wife will set free her what no man can give her, namely, the feminine point of view, which modifies, or adds, or subtracts the third dimension. No man can. Men sometimes say that it is useless to take a woman's judgment, because they cannot put before her all the facts necessary for a conclusion. But that is not the least necessary. Put before a sensible woman the outline view of the situation, and in about it is worth having. If you know all the facts, that is enough. What you want is the stereoscopic effect, and the opinion of a well-balanced, sympathetic woman will give you that.

The better she knows you, and the more deeply she loves you, the wiser her judgment. Talk it over with your wife—Boston Watchman.

Of an unusual sort was the unusual intimacy performed by a lover by Rev. Camden M. Caderon, when he failed in his efforts of matriculating Rev. Stuart R. Young's Shortage.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 16.—The examination of the books of former

City Treasurer Stuart R. Young, who committed suicide on Nov. 27, was completed to the last six months of his term, and it was noted that a discrepancy of about $44,000 had already been discovered in his accounts. It is now claimed that the shortage will reach about $60, 000.

Rev. Irl R. Hicks Is Not Dead.

Notwithstanding a widely current rumor that the Rev. Irl R. Hicks was dead, he never did a better health, and never did a harder and more successful year's work than that just closing. He has just completed his large and splendid Almanac for 1902 and with his staff of able helpers has brought his journal "Word and Works" fully forward into international reputation. For nearly a century Mr. Hicks has grown in reputation and usefulness as the people's astronomer, and forecaster of storms and the charter of coming seasons. Never was his weather forecast so accurate after his first timely warning of a severe storm this year having saved the people from loss and suffering. Millions of bushels of wheat were harvested through his advice to plant crops that would mature early. At present his Almanac is certainly stand by Prof. Hicks, when it costs them little and the benefits are so great. His fine Almanac of 200 pages is only 25c, and his splendid family journal is only one dollar a year including the Almanac. Send to Word and Works Pub. Co., 2201 Locust St., St. Louis, Mo.

DECEMBER 20, 1901—

Former Chief Justice J. H. Hazelrigg has been engaged by Senator Edwards to represent him at Frankfort in the proposed contest for his seat.

The Hay-Pauncefort treaty for an extension of the canal was ratified by the Senate Monday by a vote of 72 to 6. Those who opposed ratification were Meaders, Blackburn, Bacon, Mallory, Culberson, Tilman and Teller.

The New York Tribune observes that the convicted police blackmailers are in a "Siberian bog." Siberian bog is the classic rendition of what is known in Tammany parlance as "the middle of a d-d bad six."—Louisville Times.

Wireless Marconi has been served with papers by a telegraph company claiming all rights for telegraph business in Newfoundland, ordering him to cease work on his system. Unless he abides by this order the company threatens to apply for an injunction against him. Marconi has not decided what action he will take, but feels the threat an acknowledgement of his success.

Senator Jones has introduced a joint resolution extending the thanks of Congress and the American people to Rear Admiral Schley for his victory at Santiago. Admiral Schley has asked the postponement of the approval of the findings of the Court of Inquiry until he can file a bill of objections in which he will ask that the majority's finding be set aside.

The United States Philippine Commission has finally decided not to again interfere with the importation or exportation of gold or silver, unless absolutely necessary to do so by force of circumstances, but beginning with the year 1902, the commission will alter the two to one ratio, in accordance with the existing ratio in the hope of preventing the further export of gold and American bills, which are at present being shipped.

It is said there is a desire in some quarters to not only abolish the existing unpaid boards of assay commissioners, but also to abolish the entire Feeble Minded Institute. Whatever may be the merits of the latter proposition, the institution should not be abolished until suitable accommodations are provided for those who favor the other scheme.

Supt. Owens, of the Feeble Minded Institute says in his report: "In a medico-pedagogic sense this institution is almost a failure. An ill-ordered brain is organic with no hope of recovery and should have no long tutelage in an institution where this is an absolute estoppel of that generation, but a disordered brain is functional and under proper environment may be returned to the world safe and healthy." If the doctor talks that way all of the time, maybe he is judging hiswards too harshly. Why not try them on something not so much like that famous section of Mississippi constitution, that the colored voter is required to explain?

All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach, etc.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic. I was afflicted with catarrh, took medicines of all kinds, giving up smoking, but could hardly bear taste or smell. I then concluded to go to H. W. Harmer, Hopkinsville, Ky., and after five days' treatment, I am now had no return of the disease since." Emma Foxam, Lebanon, Kan.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cures catarrh—it soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane and builds up the whole system.

Commonwealth's Attorney Howell seems to have excelled himself in his speech in the Timlin case at Eddyville.

The Princeton Banner says: "The final argument in the case was made by Col. W. R. Howell, and was listened to with the profoundest and most intense interest. In his formidable and eloquent tribute to man and motives, the many hearers were moved to tears, and when he drew in graphic language a word picture of the death-agencies of the boy, his masterly tribute held his audience spell-bound and in transport. His final appeal to the jury to uphold the law was powerful and convincing.

"TWO LITTLE VAGRANTS."

This Great Attraction at Opera House December 26.

It is the intense human sympathy in the "Two Little Vagrants" that gives it a virility beyond others of its class, and make it, at the present time, as great an attraction as when it was first produced in New York City and Boston.

Manager Holland, therefore selected "Two Little Vagrants" as his attraction for Thursday night, December 26.

"Two Little Vagrants" is a stirring drama of life in Paris, with reasonable situations and convincing action. It tells the story of the loss of a child who is recovered after long years, though he has been brought up by his abductors as a thief. In the meantime another boy has been adopted into the family in his place, and the discovery of their true relationship offers the dramatist a situation which he has worked up with masterly play on the emotions. The tearful element is not allowed to darken the play too much, and it is altogether an interesting and effective production. The two leading characters, the vagrants, are both played by women who make up as boys of widely differing character, but equally pleasing. Neva Harrison, acknowledged as one of the best exponents of heroic boy characters, will be seen as Fan-Fan.

MODERN ROBINSON CRUSOE.

Natives Admired White Skin And

Let Him Live.

Thirty years ago, Capt. D. D. O'Keefe, an American, landed in a form on the Island of Yap, in the Carolines. The natives admired his white skin and he persuaded them not to eat him, masking them to believe that he was gifted with occult powers. Finally they made him their king, and he developed a rich trade between the islands and Hong Kong, being widely known as "King" O'Keefe. News has just come to his wife, who is still alive in this country, that he is dead, too!

From Lafayette.

Lafayette, Ky., Dec. 17. Miss Fannie Brame, age about 60 years, died at her home near Bennettstown this morning at 10 o'clock and was buried this afternoon in the Lafayette cemetery. She had been a constant member of the Methodist Church from her childhood, and was a devoted Christian. But few better ladies ever lived. She was loved by all who knew her. She leaves and aged mother and one sister besides numerous relatives and friends to mourn her departure. She had been in feeble health several months and her death was not unexpected.

The Epworth League at this place expects to have an entertainment at the Methodist church on Wednesday night, Dec. 25th. It is to consist of songs, recitations, &c., in connection with a Christmas tree, and as the League fever does things by halves, we will expect something nice. The public is cordially invited to attend and to bring presents for your friends. C.

DATE CHANGED.

ENDED HIS LIFE.
Clarksville Business Man Kills
Himself With Revolver.

About 9 o'clock Tuesday morning Mercer W. Quarles, of Clarksville, while laboring under a severe mental and physical depression, brought about by over-work and illness, went to the basement of his home and placing the muzzle of a 32-caliber revolver in his mouth pulled the trigger. Death was instantaneous. Fifteen minutes later his body was discovered by Duncan Quarles, in one of the pockets of his coat a brief communication was found addressed to a younger brother, in which he referred to the step he was about to take and directed him where to find certain important papers and giving instructions touching his interment.

Mercer Quarles was the senior member of the well-known jewelry firm of Quarles Bros. He was a son of Prof. D. M. Quarles, an educator of distinguished reputation, who formerly lived in Christian County. Deceased was a young man of wide popularity and called every body his friend. For many years he has been prominently identified with the Knight of Pythias, and was a member Clarksville Lodge of Elks. He was unmarried. A father, three sisters and two brothers survive him. He was 37 years old.

Freezing temperature is reported nearly as far South as Tampa, Fla.

Why Study Ostopathy?

We should offer positive assurance that we could thoroughly qualify you in twenty months to practice a profession that would double, triple or quadruple your present income, your interest would be realized.

But of course we cannot guarantee that.

Yet ninety per cent of the men or women who read this could probably make more money from the practice of Ostopathy in a single year than they now make in five.

The reason is simple. This is an age of specialists. The man or woman who knows one thing well, and follows it succeeds.

Ostopaths are specialists. They treat every curable disease successfully, but by natural methods, dissimilar to all other systems.

They have wrought such marvelous cures where all other systems failed that the new method of healing has been rapidly popularized and given tremendous impetus.

Ten years ago Ostopathy was obscure. To-day it has the legal sanction of nearly half the states.

It furnishes unexampled opportunity to young men and women. Consider that there are less than 2,000 ostopathic physicians in the world. Half a million could find a great mission and great remuneration to-day.

Science is the simplicity of truth. Ostopathy is the simplicity of science. It does not concern itself so much with symptoms, but applies the axe to the cause of the disease.

"Get back to nature" is the slogan of modern medical progress. Ostopathy is nature's own.

We teach Anatomy, Histology, Physiology, Pathology, Chemistry, Symptomatology, and everything taught in the medical universities except materia medica, for which is substituted the principles and practice of ostopathy.

We train great men and men into the field a large number of physicians. They have won success. They conquer disease. And after a few months of meritorious practice they are established for life.

The Southern School of Ostopathy is one of the oldest and best of the ostopathic institutions. It is a member of the associated colleges. Its diplomas give you credentials to practice anywhere on earth.

It requires four terms of five months each to complete the course. Tuition $300. Classes open in September and February each year.

Ask us any question. We want you to know what ostopathy is—we will trust your intelligence for the rest.

A request will bring you literature.

KENTUCKY'S RESOURCES.

Movement For a Display of Them at St. Louis Exposition.

The Board of Trade of this city has started a plan whereby it is hoped great results may come to Mayville and the state at large.

It is proposed to have Senator William M. Cox father a bill—and he has it under way—and push its passage at the forthcoming session of the Legislature, the express purpose of which shall pledge a certain sum of money with which to make a creditable exhibit during the Louisville Purchase Exposition in St. Louis in 1903.

Heretofore there have been appropriations for such purposes, but so meager in sum as to preclude the possibility of advertising the state's resources and properly presenting to the world the inexhaustible fields of minerals, the vast area of territory, the almost infinite supply of timber and the geographical situation which Kentucky possesses.

It is proposed by those having the bill in hand to so frame it as to make the good results to the state the first consideration.

The master of management will not be given to those seeking fat salaries with no desire or ability to do the work which will be necessary. Men of the best business qualifications; men above party baseness; men wise in planning and sound in execution will be selected and upon only a comfortable annuity while the preliminary arrangements are being carried out.

It is only eighteen months until the day of opening of the Exposition, which from every standpoint will eclipse any ever held.

The Legislature sits in January, and any move towards passing such a bill must be done at this session.

The newspapers of the state are its pulse, and if they will can soon time measure and accomplish more than all other forces combined. As the finger of the skilled physician gently lies upon the patient's pulse in order to learn of his condition, so the pen of the deft Editor is urged to take the pulse of the public and after testing it give expression, that this may be pushed on to complete success—Mayville Ledger and Bulletin.

The Christmas number of The Century (December) is, if anything, handsomer than the November number. The cover design, by J. C. Leyendecker—two angels holding aloft the infant Jesus—is printed in eight colors on a creamy background; and the frontispiece is one of four full-page pictures, instants, by Maxfield Parrish, accompanying the text of Milton's "L'Allegro." Following this comes a paper on "Christmas in France," by Mme. Th. Bentzon, with drawings of children by Boudet de Monvel, one of the greatest of living artists in the presentation of the characteristics of childhood.

Twenty-three Years.

of the fact that the KENTUCKIAN is winding up its 23rd year of existence, it is not out of place to say a word to its friends. The KENTUCKIAN has long since become a fixture of Hopkinsville.

Paper Records in the City Have Been Broken by It.

other paper ever published in Hopkinsville can point to a record of more than 20 years, with each year's business better than the one before. Many papers in that time have tried to run in Hopkinsville and failed by the wayside? How many have failed to reach the goal? A ocean cable 10,000 miles long would not serve the purpose for which it was designed if it fell short within twenty feet of the receiving-instrument.

It isn't the first end that counts. It's the last end. The start is nothing. Every contestant starts in a race, but how many finish? Almost any horse can begin in a race, but it's the coming under the wire for the last time that counts, it's being in the race to the finish that is alone valuable.

A great many things in this world are made to begin well enough, but they fall short.

The KENTUCKIAN as an advertising medium has never fallen short. A news medium, occupying a field of its own choosing, it has for 20 years stood squarely upon its merits and succeeded.

HERE OTHERS FAILED.

Advertisers should bear this in mind. Money spent for newspaper advertising is an investment. It is not how much the advertising costs, but how large will be the returns. The mission of Newspaper Advertising is to Sell Goods. When the careful merchant has decided the important question as to the right medium, then, by attractive display advertising in that medium, he will inevitably increase sales. This result follows as surely as day follows night. The

Kentuckian

The medium that pays, because it reaches the people. It has among its patrons advertisers who have been with it without a break for 12 to 20 years. It numbers the very best class of advertisers in their respective classes of business.

If you are not already a customer of ours, we want to make you one, and your advertising ONE OF OUR SPECIALTIES.

Newspaper advertising has become an indispensable adjunct to business. You need the advertising, we have the space to sell. Come let us do business with each other.

And to the reading public, remember we cover the entire news field twice a week for only $2 a year. At least one half of the news we give is in advance of other publications, because our facilities for gathering out-of-town news are equaled by none. If your time is out renew promptly.

You have never taken the KENTUCKIAN, try it for 1902.

VIRGINIA SCHOOL.

Description of the Elegant New South Side Building.

Clay Street School Taken On a Tour of Inspection And Admiration.

Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the pupils from the Clay street schools, about 370 in all, in charge of their teachers, were taken on a visit to the new Virginia street building, opened a few days ago. One class after another was marched in, taken in charge by usheres from the Virginia School, and conducted from one room to another until all had been inspected. There was no breaking of ranks. Everything was in perfect order, and after the visit was over, the children were taken back to their own school, a distance of about half a mile.

A representative of the KENTUCKIAN was present and was afforded an opportunity to see the new building for the first time since its completion.

A Model Structure.

The edifice is a beautiful one, situated in a roomy lot on a fashionable residence street and the building is an ornament to that part of the city. It is not only imposing, but the architectural effect is novel and attractive. It is nearly four stories high, but the first story is called the basement. This story is a rustic stone, laid in rough courses, capped with a white stone belt. The rest is of red brick made in Hopkinsville, laid in red mortar. The trimmings are of rough stone. The front elevation is about 50 feet. The walls are broken, with octagon towers on each of the four corners, gables over each of the four sides, heavy projecting cornices and high slate roof. There are entrances on the west, south and east sides. The furnace is located on the north side. The basement is fitted up with steam heating and water works.

The closets are automatically flushed into a subterranean cavern, found by excavating in the school lot. In addition to the closets for both sexes, there is in the basement a large fuel room, a boiler room, a central court or hallway and on each side in front a large basement room for a play room in bad weather. The first floor proper is reached by a flight of steps in front and by stairways on two sides. Entering from the front, there is a circular hall 26 feet in diameter. From this are doorways leading into the four large school rooms in each corner of the building, and the cloak rooms adjoining each room.

These rooms are 26x30 feet, with ceiling 14 feet high. There are eight windows and three doors to each room.

The story above is exactly like the first, except that the ceiling is 13 feet high. The fourth story is a large lecture room 50 by 75 feet, with seven alcoves. The ceiling is 22 feet high, extending into the roof. This room is at present unfurnished. It can be used as an auditorium, or cut up into school rooms as may be needed in the future.

All of the finishings in the building are quartered oak and every aim has been to make the building a perfect one for the purpose intended.

The heating is supplied with Johnson temperature controlling devices. All valves close automatically at 70 degrees and reopen at 68. The temperature can only vary 2 or 3 degrees, and is the same in all the rooms. The balls are heated by direct steam, but the school rooms by indirect steam. There is a device by which fresh air is taken in, heated and passed out of the ventilating shafts, being used only once.

The great advantage of this, cannot be overestimated. If desired, the system can be changed to direct steam by turning a valve, and vice versa.

A Haxton bracket steam boiler is used, equipped with the Davis automatic check draft. This holds the water at one level all the time. When the pressure gets to 5 pounds, the check draft opens and closes at 6 pounds, thus holding the pressure at a point between 5 and 6 pounds.

Mr. E. L. Haxton, with Forbes which could not be improved upon. At present seven of the eight school rooms are used. Of the total of 744 pupils, about 300 are in this building.

Room No. 1 is in charge of Miss Lottie McDaniel; No. 2, Miss Annie Cox; No. 3, Miss Susie Cox; No. 4, Miss Alice Lander; No. 5, Mrs. Rosa Bramham, principal; No. 6, is vacant; No. 7, Miss Dora Leichardt; No. 8, Miss Mary Walker. Adjoining Mrs. Bramham's room on the third floor, over the entrance, is the office. This is elegantly furnished with a Brussels carpet, handsome furniture, potted plants and pretty pictures. It is a commodious apartment and a door connects it with the principal's room, who is in the absence of the Superintendent.

The architect of the building were Harris and Shopall, of Evansville. Forbes & Bro. secured the contract at $19,750, but the total cost of the furnished building was about $21,000. Mr. W. A. Long, with Forbes & Bro., had charge of the construction, and the architect, Mr. Harris, is accepting the building, stated that it was the best built structure he had ever planned.

Peter Morgan, col., is in charge of the building, and is in charge of the furnace, etc., in the basement.

The School Teacher's Victory.

A signal triumph has just been won by two Chicago school-teachers over the most powerful corporations of that city; and the more fully the details of the struggle become known, the more remarkable their victory appears.

The appropriations for schools in Chicago have long been inadequate, and whenever the Board of Education needed $1,000,000 or $2,000,000 for any purpose, it had been in the habit of deducting it from the teachers' salaries. A few years ago, about 4000 of the 6000 teachers in Chicago organized a Teachers Federation. Having reason to believe that the shortage of money was due to the fact that most of the large corporations were evading their legal taxes, they appointed two young teachers, Miss Margaret Hale and Miss Catherine Goggin, a committee to investigate. Then, as the Boston Journal of Education says, "the battle royal began between two little schoolmarm's and all the most powerful corporations and trusts in the State combined."

The women's inquiries revealed a most extraordinary state of things. Up to 1876, the railroads of Illinois had been assessed an annual tax on their franchises. In 1874, the assessment was $31,000,000, in 1875, only $22,000,000; and from 1875 to the present time, they have not been assessed at all. In 1874, the franchises of the two little horse-race lines which Chicago then had were taxed at $1,000,000; but in 1899, the franchises of the 700 miles of electric and cable car lines in Chicago were not taxed a cent.

About 1875 the railroads apparently found out that it was cheaper to bribe the officials whose duty it was to apportion their taxes than it was to pay the tax. Other corporations found out the same thing. Of 23 large corporations that the teachers investigated, the majority were not assessed at all, and the others were assessed on only a small fraction of their actual property. These 23 corporations were the gas and coke company, the telephone company, an electric company, and 20 street railway companies.

The woman tried to induce the officials whose duty it was to tax these corporations to tax them. Finding that they were in league with the tax-dodgers and were determined not to comply with the law, the women engaged an able lawyer and took legal action, to compel the officials to do their duty. The corporations fought hard; they exhausted every resource of evasion and delay, they appealed the case up from court to court; but the law was clear and the evidence of fraud overwhelming, and the Supreme Court of Illinois has ruled that they must pay. The decision will add millions every year to the revenues of Chicago. Hereafter there will be money enough to keep the schools open the full term, and to pay the teachers' salaries. All the other municipalities in Illinois will also profit by the decision.

Are not those two plucky young women worthy of a vote?
